

I don't agree with overturning New Jersey's do not call list law. I have stopped get calls from sales people and it's wonderful to be able to eat dinner or relax with the family with no interuptions. What would the point of stopping this law be? Solicitors calling my house is harrassment.